

What would you think of elected school board officials, their judgement, or their decision-making capability if they were:

- Promoting Drug Use on Social Media where kids can see it
- Posting on sexual prowess, sexual activity and encouraging people or characters to “fuck and fuck well” or referring to someone as a “bad lay” in addition to referring to intercourse as “banging” on social media
- Actively posts on social media while attending school board meetings
- During a live meeting posted commentary on the types of clothes “teen girls” were wearing
- Perpetuated hate speech and referred to people as bigots who didn’t agree with their opinions
- Supported bullying and positively recognized social media posts that encouraged people to treat others poorly
- Promoted alcohol use on social media and called it “mothers little helper”
- Profusely uses profanity throughout social media
- Seemingly supported anti-israel protesters through social media acknowledgements
- Liked posts that were not supportive of Israel or America supporting Israel after October 2023

A bigger question might be is whether or not the board member and her colleagues are in violation of a code of conduct for school administrators? Wasn’t a middleschool teacher forced out after his social media posts were deemed political and offensive? Why would a school board member be treated differently?

These posts, and the liking of her posts, seem to promote anti-israel perspectives, encourage disrespectful behavior, bullying, drug/alcohol use, and promiscuity.

Six hour school board meeting? Time for some mother's little helper (Big mug of sleepytime extra with honey and a shot of bourbon).

IDK!! There's hand/mouth stuff but if I remember correctly that's it until she's endgame w one. (I kind of equate it to how Erin Walsh had an interim bf but he was a bad lay). Like KC let our people fuck and fuck well!

Live from the school board meeting - can report that teen girls are wearing Ugg clogs to an astonishing degree.

Agree. Made it notable I thought in her latest where the FMC and her bestie have planned summers of casual sex w no regrets.

Sure sex is great, but have you forwarded your days-old response to someone asking when you were going to get back to them on something?

That's why he refers to keeping a sex slave as "unpleasantness" bc he's classy!

I should also note that this book contains more sex than I've written in a long, long, loooong time. Each time a tweet declaring graphic sexual content unnecessary went viral, I added more orgasms. 🙄

I haven't listened yet, but I'm assuming if it's a double album, the second is just about the joys of getting your back blown out by an uncomplicated man?

Hot.

Liked a post saying that aid to Israel is genocide. Comparing Israel-related actions to those of the Nazi is one of the definitions of antisemitism according to IHRA definition adopted by the City of Mercer Island

Using sexual reference when referring to peace negotiations in Mideast

After reading just a few of the posts that have been collected, is this the type of behavior you'd expect to see from a role model charged with the future of your children's education?
